

Bourne-Schweitzer Gallery Fall Art Classes

Overview

The Bourne-Schweitzer Gallery is excited to announce our upcoming Fall Art Classes, designed to teach and foster artistic skills for both children and adult classes. These classes offer a perfect opportunity for kids, adults, friends, and families to engage in creative activities, with easy-to-follow lessons and art projects that participants can take home after each session. Whether you're looking for a fun weekend activity or a unique way to spend your Friday with friends, our classes offer something for everyone.

Meet your instructors:*Julie Schweitzer

Julie Schweitzer is the co-director of the Bourne-Schweitzer Gallery. She has been actively involved in the development of the regional arts community for over 30 years. She has helped to create, administer, and served as executive director and on the board of multiple arts organizations. In 2017 she left the nonprofit sector and opened ArtSeed. Then, in 2020, she and Jim Bourne decided to collaborate to form Bourne-Schweitzer Gallery where she has curated numerous exhibitions since.

Jessalyn Robinson

Jessalyn Robinson, an intern at the Bourne-Schweitzer Gallery, is currently pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts in Drawing at Indiana University Southeast with a minor in Digital Arts, attributes her passion for art to her late grandmother and painter. She has experience in both art aid and chaperoning, assisting Julie in ensuring each participant gets the most out of their creative experience.
